Gerry Leeseberg, a partner at the firm of Leeseberg & Valentine, is well known as being one of the most successful trial lawyers in Ohio. Gerry has represented hundreds of clients in state and federal courts throughout Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Florida, Texas, Missouri, Kentucky and West Virginia. In Ohio, he has obtained four of highest medical malpractice verdicts in Franklin County, as well as record high verdicts in other counties. His primary focus is on Medical Malpractice, Product Liability, Personal Injury, Aviation accidents and railroad crossing accidents.

Gerry is a Past President of the Central Ohio Association for Justice. He has served on the Board of the Ohio Association for Justice, and for several terms as the Chair of the OAJ Medical Negligence Section. He is also Board Certified in Civil Litigation by the National Board of Trial Advocacy, has been included in the "Best Trial Lawyer in America" list since 1994, and named as one of Ohio's "Super Lawyers". Additionally, Gerry has been selected to be featured in Columbus CEO magazine's "Top Lawyer" issue for April 2015. Based on Avvo's rating system, he was identified as being among an elite group of Columbus lawyers recognized for their legal abilities and professional ethical standards.

Most recently, Gerry has been invited to become a member of BlueBook Society. BlueBook Society members are passionate about, and compassionate in, the practice of law. They are deeply committed to their communities and to their clients, and are dedicated to reaching new levels of professional achievement. For BlueBook Society members, the pursuit of law and justice is a quest, and a means by which to make a profound difference.
